Hi Kristen,

No final word on the sampling start time. I suggested 8:30, but if you have a more preferred time let me know. I should hear back from the contractor today.

Also, I seem to have misplaced the EnCore sampler tube. If you see it let me know. I may have also left it on the sampling table with the REI materials, although I could have sworn that I packed it in with my stuff. I will send a message to Dave Larson.

Thank you.
